PAELLA

The most characteristic dishes are made with rice which is cooked in a myriad of different ways. The star of the show is the world famous paella. Paella is a kind of stew, cooked with dry rice, chicken and rabbit, bajoqueta (green beans) and garrofón (butter beans). Other traditional dishes are arroz al horno (oven-baked rice), arroz a banda (rice with seafood), arroz negro (rice with squid), arròs amb fesols i naps, a “moist” rice with beans and turnips, and fideuà (replacing rice with noodles).

TAPAS. Patatas bravas, grilled cuttlefish, mussels, clams, anchovies in vinegar and cod croquettes... are just a handful of the tapas on offer to enjoy with a cold beer or some sangria.

ALMUERZO. lunch is typical of Valencia. It consists of a mid-morning snack. very complete a snack. Recommended!

AGUA DE VALENCIA | WATER OF VALENCIA. Agua de Valencia, a potent combination of fresh orange juice and cava.

HORCHATA. Horchata is a refreshing brew made from the tiger nut, a tuber grown only in specific types of soil, making it exclusive to Valencia.

CAFÉ CREMAET | COFFEE CREMAET. coffee with a special preparation of liquor, lemon, coffee and a touch of magic.

FRUTAS Y VERDURAS | FRUIT AND VEGETABLES. The orange is indisputably Valencia's quintessential fruit. Although harvested in October and throughout winter, this fruit is actually available all year round.
